

Housing general information

As most of urban universities, BEM does not have its own dormitories and housing in Bordeaux can be difficult to find, that is why we highly recommend you to find an accommodation before your arrival.

Our housing advisor Caroline Guilloux and our International Students association Melting Potes can help you in your “housing hunt”.

To help us to find a solution that will be optimal for you:

- please take some time to explore the different housing options which you will find in our “International Students Guide” (pages 19 to 24)
- and fill in the following on line application form :

+ For Students arriving in September-December:
